BACKGROUND / KEY ISSUES / CONTRIBUTING FACTORS:

In April of 2007 Council approved a three (3) year collective bargaining agreement between the United Steel, Paper and Forestry, Rubber, Manufacturing, Energy, Allied Industrial & Service Workers International Union (Blue Collar Union) and the City of Las Cruces.

In accordance with LCMC Sec. 15-15, negotiations and impasse resolutions, the parties entered into negotiations on January 29th, 2010.

Negotiations were tentatively completed on Wednesday April 14th, 2010 resulting in a proposed agreement that will run through June 2013.

This three (3) year agreement does not contain provisions for a general wage increase at signing. However, wage re-opener provisions are included for the first and second anniversary dates of the agreement. The parties further agreed to an early wage re-opener provided City gross receipt tax (GRT) revenues should increase by at least three (3) percent for two (2) consecutive quarters.

Other notable changes include an additional longevity increase reflecting three (3) years of continuous full-time regular municipal service, an additional eight (8) hours of personal leave to be used within a twelve (12) month period, an increase to stand-by pay from eighty five (85) to ninety five (90) dollars per week and a new article governing employee training.

Departments utilizing stand-by employees who, though off duty, are required to be available and able to respond to inquiries by telephone, pager or radio and/or, if necessary, return to duty, have approved budgets to cover these expenditures. The costs associated with this resolution include approximately seven thousand five hundred (7,500) dollars per year for the increase to stand-by pay. Those associated with additional hours of personal leave will be limited and most likely seen as occasional overtime required to meet organizational needs during periods of employee leave.

The Employer's employees, as members of the Union, are to regard themselves as Public Employees and are to be governed by the highest ideals of honor and integrity in all their public and personal conduct in order that they may merit the respect and confidence of the general public. This is the only Agreement between the parties and the previous Agreement between the parties and its amendments are hereby canceled.

ARTICLE 1. RECOGNITION

The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agent on behalf of all regular non-probationary employees in the classifications listed in Appendix A, attached hereto and made part of this Agreement, with respect to wages, hours, and all other terms and conditions of employment. No part-time employee shall have greater benefits than those contained in the City of Las Cruces Personnel Policies unless specifically delineated and designated as part-time employee benefits herein.

ARTICLE 2. NON-DISCRIMINATION

The parties agree that neither the Union's nor the Employer's respective policies or activities will discriminate against any employee based upon race, age, sex, creed, color, national origin, marital status, political affiliation, disability, religion, sexual orientation, or Union or non-Union affiliation.

ARTICLE 3. CONTRACTING AND SUBCONTRACTING

The Employer, prior to contracting out or subcontracting out work that will result in a bargaining unit employee or employees as the case may be losing their job(s), shall do the following:

- A. Provide the Union with two (2) weeks advance notice.
- B. Identify the affected employee or employees.
- C. Provide an opportunity, upon request, for the Union to meet with the City Manager to discuss possible alternatives to the contracting or subcontracting out, within five working days of notice to the Union.
- D. Regular budgeted bargaining unit positions may be filled temporarily for up to 12 months. Management may request extensions, to meet operations needs, to the Union president.

ARTICLE 4. AGREEMENT CONTROL

- A. If any policy, regulation or directive of the Employer or the Union is in specific conflict with any provision of this Agreement, the Agreement provision will control. By mutual written agreement, the parties may modify this Agreement.
- B. The Employer will not implement any change that is in specific conflict with this Agreement. The Union and the employees will abide by the Conditions of this Agreement and applicable Employer and/or Department policy, rules, regulations and/or officially sanctioned practices. All City policies, rules, regulations, and practices, other than those specifically set forth in this Agreement are not subject to the grievance procedure contained in this Agreement. Said policies rules and procedures shall not be interpreted as being an extension of this Agreement.

- C. Unless otherwise specifically stated herein, the provision, condition, and the requirements of this Agreement shall apply to all employees in the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 5. STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS PROHIBITED

- A. No employee or labor organization shall engage in a strike. No employee or labor organization shall cause, instigate, encourage or support a strike. The Employer shall not cause, instigate or engage in any employee lockout.
- B. When an agent of the Employer submits a formal complaint by the City Council alleging a strike has occurred, the City Council shall meet in emergency session, within twenty-four (24) hours of the filing of the charge and determine whether a strike has indeed occurred.
- C. The Employer may apply to the district court for the injunctive relief to end a strike, and an exclusive representative of public employees affected by a lockout may apply to district court of injunctive relief to end a lockout.
- D. Any labor organizations that causes, instigates, encourages or supports a public employee strike, walkout or slowdown may be decertified after a hearing before the City Council as the exclusive representative for that appropriate bargaining unit by the Employer and shall be barred from serving as the exclusive representative of any bargaining unit of public employees for a period of not more than one (1) year.

ARTICLE 6. EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE REVIEWS

PURPOSE.

To provide the format for the mutual exchange of information about performance between the supervisor and employee. Performance reviews may be used when considering personnel actions for a regular employee.

A. PERIODS OF REVIEWS.

Each regular employee shall be given a performance review:

1. During the probationary period.
2. At the completion of the probationary period.
3. Within a month of the employee's anniversary date of hire or promotion
4. At such time when an updated evaluation is necessary.

5. If an employee changes assignment, position, or department during the performance cycle, performance up to that point will not be disregarded. The current supervisor shall complete an interim evaluation of the employee's performance. The interim evaluation should be completed by the supervisor prior to the employee's departure and sent with the Personnel Action Notice denoting the status change to the Human Resources Department for retention in the employee's personnel file.

B. REVIEW COORDINATION.

Primary responsibility for initiation of a performance review shall be the responsibility of the supervisor.

1. Each employee shall be afforded an opportunity to provide the supervisor with a self-assessment of his or her job performance for the rating period. The employee should be asked to provide a self-evaluation at least two weeks prior to the evaluation meetings. A supervisor must review and consider the self-assessment when completing each employee's performance evaluation.
2. The supervisor or section administrator/manager shall forward the completed staff evaluations to the Department Director for review.
3. The Department Director shall forward all completed evaluations to the Human Resources Department.
4. The supervisor shall be responsible for following through on any personnel action resulting from the review.
5. The Human Resources Department shall ensure that the evaluation results and subsequent action documents are made part of the employee's permanent personnel file.
6. No presumption of performance shall be made in the absence of a performance review.
7. A customer complaint used in a performance appraisal review shall be validated.
8. When the performance review document is finished and signed by management a copy may be provided to the employee for their records upon request from the employee.

PERFORMANCE REVIEW COMMENTS.

Each employee has the right to comment on their performance review. If the employee chooses to do so in writing, such comments will be made during the evaluation and included in their personnel folder.

ARTICLE 7. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. PURPOSE

The purpose of this grievance procedure shall be to secure, at the lowest administrative level, equitable resolutions to problems that may arise and are subject to review under this procedure. The parties, at any time during the grievance procedure or any steps involved in the procedure may schedule a meeting to discuss the grievance. There shall be no other grievance or appeal procedure for the employee in the bargaining unit other than that contained in this Article. By agreeing to this grievance procedure, the Union and the employees covered by this Agreement knowingly and completely waive any right they have or may had to raise a grievance, or otherwise challenge in any way, any action or inaction of the Employer regarding the terms and conditions of employment and other provisions contained in this Agreement. To the extent allowed by law, the Union and the bargaining unit employees waive the right to seek alternative remedies on any issue covered by this Agreement.

B. DEFINITIONS

1. A "grievance" shall be defined as a dispute pertaining to a claim, which alleges a violation of this Agreement or an appeal of a disciplinary action, which results in a written reprimand, suspension without pay, demotion or termination.
2. A "grievant" shall be any employee, group of employees, or the Union.
3. "Work Day" shall mean Monday through Friday, not including holidays observed by the Employer.

C. PROCEDURES

1. Failure of the grievant (Union or the employee) to properly follow the provisions of the "Grievance Procedure" shall result in the automatic forfeiture of the grievance with prejudice.
2. The number of days indicated at each level of this procedure shall be considered a maximum, and every effort shall be made to expedite the process.
3. If the Employer fails to comply with the time limit requirement as set forth under any of the steps, the grievance shall be considered automatically appealed to the next step.
4. If any grievance is not presented or arbitration is not requested within the time limits, and in accordance with the provisions of this Article, it shall be barred from consideration or action by and between the Union and the Employer.
5. The time limits set forth herein may be extended provided the extension has been mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing.

6. A grievance shall not be considered unless the grievant initiates the grievance no later than five (5) working days after the grievant knew, or reasonably should have known of the incident that precipitated the grievance.
7. There can be no amendments to a grievance after the five (5) working days set forth in C sub item 6 above.
8. Bargaining unit employees may not grieve promotions or non-selection for promotion.
9. The procedure for grieving a suspension or demotion shall be that set forth in Step 3 and shall be filed within five (5) working days of the employee receiving notice of discipline.
10. The procedure for grieving a termination shall be that procedure set forth in Step 4. The grievance concerning termination shall be filed with the City Manager within five (5) working days of the employee receiving notice of termination.
11. The grievant and/or the union may request a meeting before the written response from the Department Director and/or the City Manager is due.
12. Management responses to Union grievance requests shall be delivered in person. In cases where individual grievants are pursuing a grievance and are not available to receive a response in person, the response shall be delivered through registered mail, the date and time of mailing shall be considered the time of response for purpose of computing time limit requirements.

D. STEPS:

STEP 1. The grievant shall make a good faith effort to resolve the issue. A good faith effort shall consist of a face-to-face meeting between the employee grievant and his/her/the immediate supervisor directly with the objective of resolving the grievance. The supervisor shall attempt to resolve the matter and shall respond to the grievant within five (5) working days. The filing of a formal, written grievance shall not preclude continuing a good faith effort to resolve the grievance. The good faith effort does not extend the time limit(s) included in this procedure.

STEP 2. If the grievance is not settled at Step 1, it may be presented in writing by the Union Steward, Chairman of the Union Grievance Committee, union designee, or the employee to the Section Administrator within five (5) working days after the Step 1 response was due. The employee shall provide a copy of the grievance to the Union. To be considered, the grievance must be submitted within the established time limits and contain at a minimum what contract provision(s) of this Collective Bargaining Agreement is (are) believed to be violated; the facts constituting the violation; and the relief requested. The Section Administrator shall respond to the Union Steward, Chairman of the Union Grievance Committee, union designee, or the employee within five (5) working days of receipt.

STEP 3. If the grievance still remains unadjusted, it may be presented in writing by the Union Steward, Grievance Committee Chairman or the employee to the Department Director within five (5) working days after the response of the Section Administrator. The Department Director shall respond in writing to the Union Steward, Grievance Committee Chairman or employee within five (5) working days of receipt.

STEP 4. If the grievance still remains unadjusted, it may be presented in writing by the Union Steward, Grievance Committee Chairman or employee to the City Manager, or designee, within five (5) working days after the response of the Department Director. The City Manager, or designee, shall respond in writing to the Union Steward, Grievance Committee Chairman or employee within ten (10) working days of receipt.

STEP 5 If the grievance is not resolved with the decision of the City Manager, either the Union or the Employer may request arbitration. In the event an individual employee requests arbitration, he/she must obtain the written approval of the Union to proceed. If the Union does not approve the employee's request, the decision of the City Manager is final and binding on the Union, the employee and the Employer. The party who requests arbitration must submit a request to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service within ten (10) working days of receipt of the City Manager's Step 4 response to the grievance. Failure to request arbitration within the ten (10) day time frame will render the grievance null and void.

The time limit in this Step may be extended by either party by mutual agreement in writing, not to exceed thirty (30) calendar days from the City Manager's response due date.

E. ARBITRATION

1. The arbitrator will be selected from a panel of seven (7) arbitrators requested from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. Each party reserves the right to request additional panels. The moving party to the arbitration shall strike the first name from any panel. The parties shall alternatively strike names until there is one name remaining who shall be the arbitrator.
2. The arbitrator shall conduct the hearing as soon as possible.
3. The arbitrator's decision shall be in writing and shall include the decision, the rationale, and if appropriate, the relief. The arbitrator shall not have the authority to expand, or add to, the rights of employees or the Union under the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement.
4. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding on the parties and shall constitute an award within the meaning of the Uniform Arbitration Act. Reasons for appeals to court are set forth in the Uniform Arbitration Act.
5. The arbitrator's fees and costs shall be shared equally by the parties. All other expenses shall be assumed by the party incurring the costs, including the cost of witnesses. The parties may mutually agree to share the cost of providing a verbatim record of the proceedings.

F. MISCELLANEOUS

1. No reprisal or retaliation by any party shall be taken against any person who participates or is a witness in the proceeding of a grievance.
2. A grievant may be accompanied and/or represented by no more than two Union representatives at any hearing or meeting conducted under this procedure.
3. Any employee acting individually may present a grievance without the intervention of the Union provided the grievance has been processed in accordance with this procedure. Any adjustment made shall not specifically violate the provisions of this Collective Bargaining Agreement. At any grievance meeting held at Step 4 level or above, the Union has the right to be present and to make its views known.
4. A grievant shall not abuse legitimate grievance processes resulting in repeated unsubstantiated claims.
5. Employees providing false testimony in a grievance hearing or meeting may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
6. All documents related to a grievance shall be maintained as a separate file from an employee's personnel file. This provision shall not apply to documents related to a grievance over a disciplinary action unless such documents are removed from an employee's personnel file as relief given in the disposition of a grievance.
7. All grievances and responses hereto shall be filed and processed in accordance with this Collective Bargaining Agreement.
8. The grievant and the Union's processing of the grievances shall be conducted on unpaid time unless otherwise agreed to by the parties.

ARTICLE 8. EMPLOYEE DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

- A. Disciplinary actions may include, but are not limited to, the following:
 1. Verbal warning;
 2. Written reprimand;
 3. Requirement of payment for intentionally or negligently destroying, damaging, or losing City property;
 4. Involuntary demotion;
 5. Suspension without pay; or
 6. Termination.
- B. Disciplinary action may be imposed upon any employee for failure to fulfill his/her responsibilities or violation of work rules and shall be in writing stating the reason for the discipline (except verbal warnings). Any disciplinary action, which results in a written reprimand, suspension without pay, demotion or termination, may be processed as a grievance through the grievance procedure. Management shall initiate disciplinary action within a reasonable time period after the facts of the situation have been established.

C. Management may initiate and conduct necessary training and coaching, including the development of performance improvement plans at any time during the disciplinary process.

C.D. Discipline will be applied in a corrective, progressive, and uniform manner unless the facts of the situation warrant a more severe discipline. Discipline shall take into account the circumstances surrounding the incident, the nature of the violation(s), the employee's record of discipline, and the employee's record of performance and conduct.

D.E. Normally, employees will be disciplined in private, and in a courteous and dignified manner.

E.F. The Employer shall not discharge, suspend without pay, or involuntarily demote any employee without just cause. If the Employer feels there is just cause for discharge, suspension without pay or involuntary demotion, the employee involved shall, prior to any such action, be afforded the opportunity for a predetermination hearing before management. The purpose of the predetermination hearing is to provide the employee with the charges supporting the recommendation for discharge, suspension without pay or involuntary demotion and to allow the employee the opportunity to respond to the charges.

F.G. The Employer will provide written notice to the employee of the date, time and place of such predetermination hearing. The employee may have no more than two Union representatives present at the hearing; they are not entitled to legal representation. Upon mutual agreement by the parties a steward in training may be allowed to attend as a silent participant. With employee approval, the Union will be afforded a reasonable amount of time to prepare for the predetermination hearing, after receiving the charges against the employee.

H. An employee may request up to two (2) days of available annual or personal leave prior to the scheduled predetermination hearing date set by management.

G.I. The Employer will inform the employee in writing of the final decision.

ARTICLE 9. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

All matters related to the Employer and its operations and employment with or by the Employer and administration thereof are exclusively within the jurisdiction of its management and not subject to Union action or consent to arbitration, except such matters of employment, rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, and other conditions of employment affecting the employee-employer relationship as are specifically provided for in the terms of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 10. MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Unless limited by the provisions of this Agreement, the Employers' management rights shall include, but are not limited to the following:

- B. Seniority shall be broken only under the following circumstances:

ARTICLE 7. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. PURPOSE

The purpose of this grievance procedure shall be to secure, at the lowest administrative level, equitable resolutions to problems that may arise and are subject to review under this procedure. The parties, at any time during the grievance procedure or any steps involved in the procedure may schedule a meeting to discuss the grievance. There shall be no other grievance or appeal procedure for the employee in the bargaining unit other than that contained in this Article. By agreeing to this grievance procedure, the Union and the employees covered by this Agreement knowingly and completely waive any right they have or may had to raise a grievance, or otherwise challenge in any way, any action or inaction of the Employer regarding the terms and conditions of employment and other provisions contained in this Agreement. To the extent allowed by law, the Union and the bargaining unit employees waive the right to seek alternative remedies on any issue covered by this Agreement.

B. DEFINITIONS

1. A "grievance" shall be defined as a dispute pertaining to a claim, which alleges a violation of this Agreement or an appeal of a disciplinary action, which results in a written reprimand, suspension without pay, demotion or termination.
2. A "grievant" shall be any employee, group of employees, or the Union.
3. "Work Day" shall mean Monday through Friday, not including holidays observed by the Employer.

C. PROCEDURES

1. Failure of the grievant (Union or the employee) to properly follow the provisions of the "Grievance Procedure" shall result in the automatic forfeiture of the grievance with prejudice.
2. The number of days indicated at each level of this procedure shall be considered a maximum, and every effort shall be made to expedite the process.
3. If the Employer fails to comply with the time limit requirement as set forth under any of the steps, the grievance shall be considered automatically appealed to the next step.
4. If any grievance is not presented or arbitration is not requested within the time limits, and in accordance with the provisions of this Article, it shall be barred from consideration or action by and between the Union and the Employer.
5. The time limits set forth herein may be extended provided the extension has been mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing.

6. A grievance shall not be considered unless the grievant initiates the grievance no later than five (5) working days after the grievant knew, or reasonably should have known of the incident that precipitated the grievance.
7. There can be no amendments to a grievance after the five (5) working days set forth in C sub item 6 above.
8. Bargaining unit employees may not grieve promotions or non-selection for promotion.
9. The procedure for grieving a suspension or demotion shall be that set forth in Step 3 and shall be filed within five (5) working days of the employee receiving notice of discipline.
10. The procedure for grieving a termination shall be that procedure set forth in Step 4. The grievance concerning termination shall be filed with the City Manager within five (5) working days of the employee receiving notice of termination.
11. The grievant and/or the union may request a meeting before the written response from the Department Director and/or the City Manager is due.
12. Management responses to Union grievance requests shall be delivered in person. In cases where individual grievants are pursuing a grievance and are not available to receive a response in person, the response shall be delivered through registered mail, the date and time of mailing shall be considered the time of response for purpose of computing time limit requirements.

D. STEPS:

STEP 1. The grievant shall make a good faith effort to resolve the issue. A good faith effort shall consist of a face-to-face meeting between the grievant and the immediate supervisor directly with the objective of resolving the grievance. The supervisor shall attempt to resolve the matter and shall respond to the grievant within five (5) working days. The filing of a formal, written grievance shall not preclude continuing a good faith effort to resolve the grievance. The good faith effort does not extend the time limit(s) included in this procedure.

STEP 2. If the grievance is not settled at Step 1, it may be presented in writing by the Union Steward, Chairman of the Union Grievance Committee, union designee, or the employee to the Section Administrator within five (5) working days after the Step 1 response was due. The employee shall provide a copy of the grievance to the Union. To be considered, the grievance must be submitted within the established time limits and contain at a minimum what contract provision(s) of this Collective Bargaining Agreement is (are) believed to be violated; the facts constituting the violation; and the relief requested. The Section Administrator shall respond to the Union Steward, Chairman of the Union Grievance Committee, union designee, or the employee within five (5) working days of receipt.

STEP 3. If the grievance still remains unadjusted, it may be presented in writing by the Union Steward, Grievance Committee Chairman or the employee to the Department Director within five (5) working days after the response of the Section Administrator. The Department Director shall respond in writing to the Union Steward, Grievance Committee Chairman or employee within five (5) working days of receipt.

STEP 4. If the grievance still remains unadjusted, it may be presented in writing by the Union Steward, Grievance Committee Chairman or employee to the City Manager, or designee, within five (5) working days after the response of the Department Director. The City Manager, or designee, shall respond in writing to the Union Steward, Grievance Committee Chairman or employee within ten (10) working days of receipt.

STEP 5 If the grievance is not resolved with the decision of the City Manager, either the Union or the Employer may request arbitration. In the event an individual employee requests arbitration, he/she must obtain the written approval of the Union to proceed. If the Union does not approve the employee's request, the decision of the City Manager is final and binding on the Union, the employee and the Employer. The party who requests arbitration must submit a request to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service within ten (10) working days of receipt of the City Manager's Step 4 response to the grievance. Failure to request arbitration within the ten (10) day time frame will render the grievance null and void.

The time limit in this Step may be extended by either party by mutual agreement in writing, not to exceed thirty (30) calendar days from the City Manager's response due date.

E. ARBITRATION

1. The arbitrator will be selected from a panel of seven (7) arbitrators requested from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. Each party reserves the right to request additional panels. The moving party to the arbitration shall strike the first name from any panel. The parties shall alternatively strike names until there is one name remaining who shall be the arbitrator.
2. The arbitrator shall conduct the hearing as soon as possible.
3. The arbitrator's decision shall be in writing and shall include the decision, the rationale, and if appropriate, the relief. The arbitrator shall not have the authority to expand, or add to, the rights of employees or the Union under the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement.
4. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding on the parties and shall constitute an award within the meaning of the Uniform Arbitration Act. Reasons for appeals to court are set forth in the Uniform Arbitration Act.
5. The arbitrator's fees and costs shall be shared equally by the parties. All other expenses shall be assumed by the party incurring the costs, including the cost of witnesses. The parties may mutually agree to share the cost of providing a verbatim record of the proceedings.

F. MISCELLANEOUS

1. No reprisal or retaliation by any party shall be taken against any person who participates or is a witness in the proceeding of a grievance.
2. A grievant may be accompanied and/or represented by no more than two Union representatives at any hearing or meeting conducted under this procedure.
3. Any employee acting individually may present a grievance without the intervention of the Union provided the grievance has been processed in accordance with this procedure. Any adjustment made shall not specifically violate the provisions of this Collective Bargaining Agreement. At any grievance meeting held at Step 4 level or above, the Union has the right to be present and to make its views known.
4. A grievant shall not abuse legitimate grievance processes resulting in repeated unsubstantiated claims.
5. Employees providing false testimony in a grievance hearing or meeting may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
6. All documents related to a grievance shall be maintained as a separate file from an employee's personnel file. This provision shall not apply to documents related to a grievance over a disciplinary action unless such documents are removed from an employee's personnel file as relief given in the disposition of a grievance.
7. All grievances and responses hereto shall be filed and processed in accordance with this Collective Bargaining Agreement.
8. The grievant and the Union's processing of the grievances shall be conducted on unpaid time unless otherwise agreed to by the parties.

Any disciplinary action, which results in a written reprimand, suspension without pay, demotion or termination, may be processed as a grievance through the grievance procedure. Management shall initiate disciplinary action within a reasonable time period after the facts of the situation have been established.

- C. Management may initiate and conduct necessary training and coaching, including the development of performance improvement plans at any time during the disciplinary process.
- D. Discipline will be applied in a corrective, progressive, and uniform manner unless the facts of the situation warrant a more severe discipline. - E. Normally, employees will be disciplined in private, and in a courteous and dignified manner.
- F. The Employer shall not discharge, suspend without pay, or involuntarily demote any employee without just cause. If the Employer feels there is just cause for discharge, suspension without pay or involuntary demotion, the employee involved shall, prior to any such action, be afforded the opportunity for a predetermination hearing before management. The purpose of the predetermination hearing is to provide the employee with the charges supporting the recommendation for discharge, suspension without pay or involuntary demotion and to allow the employee the opportunity to respond to the charges.
- G. The Employer will provide written notice to the employee of the date, time and place of such predetermination hearing. The employee may have no more than two Union representatives present at the hearing; they are not entitled to legal representation. Upon mutual agreement by the parties a steward in training may be allowed to attend as a silent participant. With employee approval, the Union will be afforded a reasonable amount of time to prepare for the predetermination hearing, after receiving the charges against the employee.
