BACKGROUND / KEY ISSUES / CONTRIBUTING FACTORS: The City of Las Cruces adopted the 2009 Affordable Housing Strategic Plan in August 2009 under Resolution 10-057. This Strategic Plan called for the creation of both an affordable housing land bank and an affordable housing trust fund. In general, the land bank would be used to accept land donations or purchases that can be disposed of through grants or low-interest loans for qualified affordable housing projects. The trust fund would be a restricted source of funds that is used to finance affordable housing projects through grants or loans. Under the proposed Ordinance that creates the Affordable Housing Land Bank and Trust Fund (which is being processed under a separate Ordinance at the same time), it calls for the creation of an advisory committee that would make recommendations to the City Council on the land bank disposals and use of trust fund monies.

The attached proposed Ordinance amends the City's Board Ordinance, which is Article IV (Boards, Commissions, and Committees) of Chapter 2 (Administration) of the Las Cruces Municipal Code, 1997, as amended. Under this proposed Ordinance, the Affordable Housing

Land Bank and Trust Fund Advisory Committee would be established as a Nonstandard Board that consists of representation from each of the following groups:

- 1) Building Industry,
- 2) Realty Industry,
- 3) Mortgage Brokerage Industry,
- 4) Land Title Industry,
- 5) Greater Las Cruces Chamber of Commerce (whose representatives don't represent items 1 through 4 above), and
- 6) Hispano Chamber of Commerce of Las Cruces (whose representatives don't represent items 1 through 4 above).

Additionally, three other members would be selected from the membership of the Planning and Zoning Commission (P&Z), the Health and Human Services Advisory Committee (HHSAC), and the Municipal Housing Authority Board of Commissioners (MHA).

As this is a nonstandard board, the members, excluding the other boards' appointees, would be made by the Mayor, with the advice and consent of the City Council. The Ordinance also requires the Mayor to appoint an alternate member from each of the six industries or associations listed above in the event that a standing appointee should have a conflict of interest with any future application or proposal that could be submitted to utilize the land bank or trust fund.

Also with the proposed Ordinance, is an amendment to Chapter 2 under the general membership requirements that would allow for the current appointees to the other boards (i.e. P&Z, HHSAC, and MHA) to serve on the advisory board for the affordable housing land bank and trust fund. Currently, the board ordinance membership requirements prevent appointees by the City from serving on more than one board at a time. The P&Z, HHSAC, and MHA represent a specialized section of the City's board structure and will provide expertise to the advisory committee related to land use, community, and housing needs throughout the City.

OPTIONS / ALTERNATIVES:

- Vote "Yes"; this will amend Chapter 2 (Administration) of the Las Cruces Municipal Code, 1997, as amended, Article IV (Boards, Commissions, and Committees), Division 3 (Nonstandard Boards), by creating a new Subdivision X, entitled the Affordable Housing Land Bank and Trust Fund Advisory Committee. This nonstandard board would be appointed by the Mayor, with the advice and consent of the City Council, to make recommendations on the use of the proposed affordable housing land bank and trust fund in accordance with Chapter 13 (Housing) of the Municipal Code.
- Vote "No"; this will not amend Chapter 2 (Administration) of the Las Cruces Municipal Code, 1997, as amended, Article IV (Boards, Commissions, and Committees), Division 3 (Nonstandard Boards), by not creating a new Subdivision X, entitled the Affordable Housing Land Bank and Trust Fund Advisory Committee. By not enacting this proposed Ordinance, this would be in conflict with proposed affordable housing land bank and trust fund ordinance for Chapter 13 (Housing) of the Municipal Code.

3. Vote to "Amend"; this would be based on Council direction.
4. Vote to "Table"; this would not amend the Chapter 2 of the Municipal Code and will require direction from the City Council.
